

Acknowledgement of Almighty God (Exodus 20:3; 2 Chron 7:14; Psalm 9:17 & 127:1)

- The African Christian Democratic Party (ACDP) believes that South Africa is one nation under Almighty God. Government is ordained by God to preserve the dignity and rights of all the people to establish justice and to maintain peace and order." - ACDP Policy Principles
- The African National Congress (ANC) voted to eliminate "In humble submission to Almighty God" from the new constitution and declared South Africa a "secular" nation.
- The Christian Democratic Alliance intends to include the affirmation "In humble submission to Almighty God" in any future constitution of South Africa (Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- Congress of the People (COPE) supports the current constitution, which excluded the affirmation "In humble submission to Almighty God". "We recognize our responsibility to protect and defend our Constitution as the only thing of value that we collectively own as South Africans" (COPE Policy Documents).
- The Democratic Alliance (DA) voted for the new constitution that excluded "In humble submission to Almighty God" and fails to acknowledge God in any Policy Document or Founding Principle.
- The Freedom Front Plus (FF) makes reference and acknowledgment of God in various statements. E.g. "Marriage is an institution of God solemnized between a man and a woman". Quoted from Legalising of Same Sex Marriages. From Press Release. 1/12/2004
- In response to the Christian Action Network Policy Survey, the Independent Democratic party said that they intend to include an affirmation "In humble submission to Almighty God" in any future constitution of South Africa. However, they support the current constitution, which excluded this affirmation.
- Inkatha (IFP) voted for the constitution that excluded "In humble submission to Almighty God".

The Legalisation of Abortion (Exodus 20:13; Ex 21:22-24; Prov 6:17 & 31:8-9)

- ACDP - "We believe that life begins in the womb and that unborn babies should be constitutionally protected... We deplore abortion as a grave evil and a national tragedy." (Policy Document: Abortion and Euthanasia). Voted against abortion legalisation.
- ANC - "We are committed to reducing levels of unexplained and unwanted pregnancy." (ANC Parliamentary speech 29/10/1996). Initiated and voted for abortion on demand legalisation.
- CDA - "An unborn child has a right to life" (response to Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- COPE - Mluleki George, National Organiser of COPE, voted for the Termination of Pregnancy Bill (1996), when he was an ANC MP.
- DA - "To be pro-choice does not mean we are pro-abortion. It is the constitutional right of women to make choices about the very private matter of reproduction." (DP Parliamentary speech 29/10/1996). Voted for abortion on demand legalisation.
- FF - Voted against amendments that would make abortion easier. 19/08/2004 Media Release: Choice on Termination.
- ID - In response to the Christian Action Network Policy Survey, the ID said they recognise the right of every woman to exercise their rights to freedom of choice."
- IFP - "Unrestricted access to abortion is not considered by the IFP to be in the best interests of society... the IFP believes abortion should be available in the following cases: Rape: Scientifically determined deformity to the foetus; Danger to maternal health; Pregnant children, with the consent of their parents and medical practitioners." (Health Policy)

Education: Parent or State Controlled? (Deut 6:1-7; Psalm 78:4-7; Col 2:8)

- ACDP - "We reject State interference in religious observances in state or state-aided institutions (schools). This should be controlled by parents and the community, not by the State." (ACDP Policy Document: Reasons for rejecting the Constitution)
- ANC - "The State has the central responsibility in the provision of education and training." (ANC Policy Framework for Education and Training)
- CDA - The CDA believes "Children's education is a parental responsibility and they therefore have authority as a tax payer to ensure they receive the education they wish to receive and pay for." (Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- COPE - COPE believes that the state should train teachers and that all schools should be required to continue using Outcomes Based Education (Policy Documents and 2009 Election Manifesto).
- DA - "Devolution and decentralisation will lead to more partnerships with communities, parents, NGOs and pr a enterprise School governing bodies should have the authority to decide on the religious orientation of the their school in terms of the Constitution and the Schools Act" (Policy Document: Liberation Through Education)
- FF - "School and education is an extension of the parents' responsibility in raising their children. The governing body at a school thus becomes very important to make the right decisions representing the parents. Because parents pay taxes, they see it as their money that the government makes available to the school and their right to make decisions on the ethos of the school." (Parliament Education Debate - 20 May 2003)
- ID - In response to the Christian Action Network Policy Survey, the ID said they support the right of parents to supervise the teachers and textbooks that will mould and fill their children's minds. However, the ID supports state intervention in and funding of education (Election Manifesto 2004).
- IFP - "Parents must accept their responsibility to work in partnership with schools to develop the full potential of the children of South Africa" (22nd Women's Brigade Annual General Conference) "Education is an extension of the social and training function of the family, therefore parents and communities must be the primary custodians of the education system. The state, parents, communities and employers should assume joint responsibility for education... Education should be financed from state budgetary allocations." (IFP Education Policy)

Economy: Free Market or Socialism? (Prov 10:2 - 4; Matt 25:14 - 27; 2 Thess 3:10)

- ACDP - "A vibrant open market economy, creating opportunities for all to prosper... Job creation and economic growth through an open-market policy with as little government interference as possible" (ACDP Policy Document: Economy)
- ANC - "We have set for ourselves a competitive, fast growing economy which creates jobs for all, the redistribution of income and opportunities for the poor." ANC Parliamentary speech 14/16/1996 "We have refused the path of unprincipled abandonment of our communist values, our communist organisation, and our commitment to a communist future" (Socialism is the Future, Build it Now! SACP Strategic Perspectives, April 1995)
- CDA - The CDA stands "for the right to private ownership, and a society that has a right to demand an accountable free market" (Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- COPE - Believes in state intervention to "stabiliz[e] the economy" (COPE Policy Documents). Several of COPE's leaders were at one time members of the South African Communist Party.
- DA - "The DA subscribes to a market economy which respects the principles of private ownership and initiative which offers rewards to risk-takers and entrepreneurs, but which also recognises that the State has an important role in the development and upliftment of all South Africans (Policy Document: It's All About Jobs)
- FF - Upholds value of free market but does not rule out potential intervention as a solution. "In a free market governments sometimes have to intervene..." Speech by Mr. Willie Spies, MP in the National Assembly, Tuesday, 7 September 2004

The Christian Action Network interprets the party positions not only by their pronouncements and policy statements, but by analysing their voting patterns and their actions (Matthew 7:20). We have requested and would appreciate more official source documents from the parties on these issues. Please send relevant policy documentation to the Christian Action Network.

- ID - The ID believes in a social welfare system: "a free market economy where the market is directed to support society" (response to Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- IFP - "Less government and less regulatory involvement in the economy - including extensive privatisation" (IFP Economic Policy)

Capital Punishment for Murders (Gen 9:6; Ex 21:12 - 16; Num 35:33 & Rom 13:4)

Opposes Discrimination Based on Race (Leviticus 24:22)

- ACDP - "The ACDP chose to abstain from voting on the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Bill in Parliament... ownership of the economy should reflect the full demographic extent of our population and that an empowerment policy should be based on allowing competent South Africans equal access to resources... a Bill that might have unintended consequences, placing too much emphasis on group preferences long after economic empowerment has been achieved." (Media Release: 3 September 2003)
- ANC - "In order to redress our legacy of discrimination the (AA) Bill unavoidably recognises groups." (ANC Parliamentary speech 20/08/98). "It was the ANC who put affirmative action on the agenda" (Affirmative Action and the New Constitution)
- CDA - The CDA supports "an equal opportunity system that is not based on race" (response to Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
- COPE - COPE supports putting measures in place to "...strengthen the implementation of the Employment Equity Act (Affirmative Action) and Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment..." (COPE 2009 Election Manifesto).
- DA - "Group-based thinking, as proposed by this Bill formed the cornerstone of apartheid, and we have a duty to bear witness against its reintroduction in the guise of getting rid of apartheid" (DP Parliamentary speech 20/8/98)
- FF - Opposes affirmative action. Media Release: ANC Policy Redistributes Poverty, not Wealth.
- ID - The ID supports affirmative action (response to Christian Action Network Policy Survey).
